Example

This example is intended to help you compare the cost of investing in the Fund with the cost of investing in other mutual funds.

The example assumes that you invest $10,000 in the Fund for the time periods indicated and then redeem all of your shares at the end of those periods. The example also assumes that your investment has a 5% return each year, and that the Fund’s operating expenses remain the same. Although your actual costs may be higher or lower, based on these assumptions your costs would be:

| 1 Year | 3 Years | 5 Years | 10 Years |
|---------------|----------------|----------------|-----------------|

$434

Portfolio Turnover

The Fund pays transaction costs, such as commissions, when it buys and sells securities (or “turns over” its portfolio). A higher portfolio turnover rate may indicate higher transaction costs and may result in higher taxes when Fund shares are held in a taxable account. These costs, which are not reflected in annual fund operating expenses or in the example, affect the Fund’s performance. During the most recent fiscal year, the Fund’s portfolio turnover rate was 42% of the average value of its portfolio.

Principal Investment Strategies

The Fund uses a “growth investing” style by investing, under normal circumstances, at least 80% of its assets in the common stock of domestic companies that its Sub-adviser believes have superior growth potential and fundamental characteristics that are significantly better than the market average and support internal earnings growth capability. The Fund invests in small and mid-capitalization companies that have a minimum market capitalization of $250 million at the time of purchase. The Fund seeks to maintain a minimum average weighted market capitalization of at least $5 billion.

Principal Investment Risks

An investment in the Fund is subject to investment risks, including the possible loss of some or all of the principal amount invested. There can be no assurance that the Fund will be successful in meeting its investment objective. Generally, the Fund will be subject to the following additional risks:

Investment Selection Risk. The Fund’s ability to achieve its investment objective is dependent on the Sub-adviser’s ability to identify profitable investment opportunities for the Fund.

Market Risk. The value of securities in the Fund’s portfolio may decline due to daily fluctuations in the securities markets, including fluctuation in interest rates, national and international economic conditions and general equity market conditions.

Small and Mid-Capitalization Risk. The Fund may invest in small and medium capitalization companies which involve greater risks than those associated with larger, more established companies. Smaller companies may be subject to more abrupt or erratic price movements.

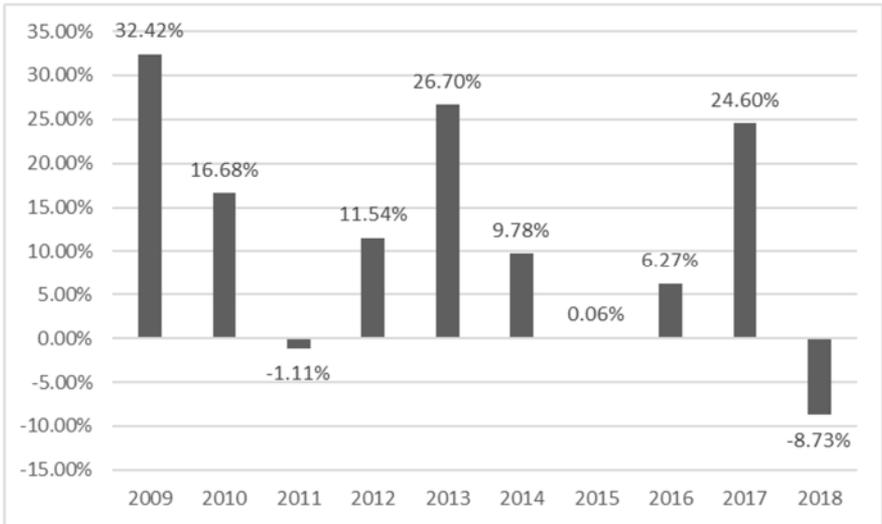

An investment in the Fund is not a deposit of a bank and is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. The Fund is not a complete investment program.

Performance

The bar chart and performance table that follow provide some indication of the risks and variability of investing in the Fund by showing changes in the Fund’s performance from year to year and by showing how the Fund’s average annual total returns compare with those of a broad measure of market performance. The Fund’s past performance (before and after taxes) is not necessarily an indication of how the Fund will perform in the future.

The following chart shows the total return of the Fund for the past ten full calendar years for periods subsequent to the effective date of the Fund’s registration statement.

Calendar Year Returns as of December 31

The Fund’s Institutional Class Shares year-to-date total return through September 30, 2019 was 12.28%.

During the period shown in the bar chart, the highest quarterly return was 14.43% (for the quarter ended March 31, 2012) and the lowest return was -23.95% (for the quarter ended December 31, 2008).

Average Annual Total Returns
For the Period Ended December 31, 2018

The table below shows how the Fund’s average annual total returns compared to those of the S&P 500 Index® and the Russell 1000 Growth Index®. The Russell 1000 Growth Index®, which measures the performance of the large-cap growth segment of the U.S. equity universe and includes those Russell 1000 companies with higher price-to-book ratios and higher forecasted growth values, is provided as a supplemental benchmark because it is reflective of the market for growth stocks in which the Fund invests. The table also presents the impact of taxes on the Fund’s returns. After-tax returns are calculated using the historical highest individual federal marginal income tax rates and do not reflect the impact of state or local income taxes. Your actual after-tax returns depend on your tax situation and may differ from those shown. If you own the Fund in a tax-deferred account, such as an individual retirement account (“IRA”) or a 401(k) plan, after-tax returns are not relevant to your investment because such accounts are subject to taxes only upon distribution.
